

Jonathan McCully, Legal Adviser, Digital Freedom Fund

Jonathan McCully is the Legal Adviser to the Digital Freedom Fund, an organisation that supports strategic litigation to advance digital rights in Europe. He previously held a senior legal role at the Media Legal Defence Initiative, working on strategic litigation before international, regional and domestic courts. In this role, he worked on a number of significant free speech cases, including Magyar Jeti v. Hungary (European Court of Human Rights), Szurovecz v. Hungary (European Court of Human Rights), Mseto v. Attorney General of Tanzania (East African Court of Justice), and Federation of African Journalists v. The Gambia (ECOWAS Court). Jonathan has published widely on freedom of expression, privacy, open justice, human rights and intellectual property. He is based in London.

